

Troop 73 Summer Camp

Scout Behavior Contract

In consideration of the benefits to be derived, and in view of the fact that the Boy Scouts of America is an educational organization, membership which is voluntary and a privilege to belong, the adult leaders are accountable for the safety of your son, but they expect your son to take responsibility for his own safety and behavior and to obey the adult leader's rules and instructions by following the Scout Spirit. However, if your son's behavior is not mature enough to show respect to adult leaders or fellow scouts, then upon the discretion of the adult leaders your son will be asked to leave camp.

You will be called to come get your son and take him home immediately without a refund.
